FROM MISSOCHL. From the Harrisburg Jan usl.]

CAMP CROSS, June 28, 1861. I. S G. Kitchen, of Bloomfield, Missouri do certify that the following is a true and cor-rect statement, in regard to the movement of federal troops loward Boomfield, viz:
On the 19th of this month five hundred Durch started from Bird's Point, Missouri. occeded to Charleston, of Wississippi county, Missouri a distance of twelve miles, and took spacession of the town, and arrested six men and so t them to Cairo. They then proceeded to Byrtrand, a distance of nine miles; they there took two prisoners, and then dispersed a company of southerners that was about to be organized, in obedience to the call of the governor of Museuri. They then proceeded to Syketon, a distance of seven miles, took pos-session of the Cuiro and Fulton railroad, and were then within eigh miles of myself and Capt. Waugh, on Little river. They then retreated back to Cairo.
On the 21st of June, fifteen hundred federal troops I ft Cairo on a steamboat; proceeded to Commerce, thirty-five miles above Cairo, in Scott coauty; landed, took two prisoners, and sent them to Cairo. From Commerce, they moved within fourteen miles of Bloomfield and six miles of our encampment, where we had six hundred southerners, armed with the common rifle and shot gun. The federalists then retreated back on the same road ten miles; at that point they changed their course and | 0 | 18 to 20 00 25 00 10 00 10 10 10 10 10 10 125 00 | marched to Benton, in Scott county, and here they examined every house in the place for arms, and attempted to ravials some ladies, but were stopped by their officers.

They broke onen several private houses, that had been left by Southern men, took all the provisions in their houses, and occupied them that sight; also took passession of the Southern Methodist Church and made it a prive. Thay then returned to Commerce, left a small force there and returned to Cairo with the intention, as declared by ther officers, of reinforcing and return, take possession of Stoddard and Dunkiin comunities.
